Shortly after the accident, Peggy, Neal's wife, walked down to the beach to find out where her husband was. She recognised Mel's boat and could see members of the local beach rescue service cleaning blood off their equipment. Peggy learnt from the beach rescue service that there had been a bad accident involving Neal. She took a taxi straight to hospital where she saw Neal badly injured and being treated by the doctors. Orella and Peggy both suffered severe distress and depression as a result of their experiences.
